

GREAT FIGURES OF EUROPEAN CULTURE

Indicates in which area these famous people represent common European culture

Plato, Voltaire, Leonardo da Vinci, Erasmus, Mozart, Adenauer, Cervantes, Bach, Aristotle, de Gaulle, Victor Hugo, Schuman, J. Monnet, Shakespeare, Beethoven, Vivaldi, Rossini, Dante, Rembrandt, Michelangelo, Rousseau, Kant, Homer, Goethe, Van Gogh, Goya, Dali, Chopin, Delors, Spinelli

Writers	Painters Sculptors	Philosophers	Musicians	Politicians
Cervantès	Leonard de Vinci	Platon	Mozart	Adenauer
Victor Hugo	Rembrandt	Voltaire	Bach	de Gaulle
Shakespeare	Michel-Ange	Erasme	Beethoven	Schuman
Dante	Van Gogh	Aristote	Vivaldi	J. Monnet
Homère	Goya	Rousseau	Rossini	Delors
Goethe	Dali	Kant	Chopin	Spinelli

Primary level: 3 in each category

Lower secondary level: 5 in each category

Upper secondary level: 6 in each category

Secondary schools

THE ORIGINS OF EUROPE

Associate each period with what it contributed to European civilization

Roma

5th BC

The birth of the city and of democracy, philosophy, the scientific method, school.

The Age of Enlightenment

7th century BC to 5th century AD

The notion of person, religious unity on the continent, the first universities.

The Renaissance

14th century to 16th century

The concept of the state, the republic, the administrative and political organization, the law, the Latin alphabet.

Athens and Greece

18th century

Humanism inspired by the knowledge of Antiquity, creation in the field of art, religious reform and Protestantism.

Christianity

Since the 1st century...

The rights of the individual, the ideas of philosophers spread in Europe, criticism of divine right monarchies